File No. 8038
REGISTRY

Section 1, Special Branch

REPORT

Date August 10, 1937

Subject A. Gind Pell - communication from Japanese Consulate-General dated 3rd August, 1937.

Made by D.S. Henschman

Forwarded by C. Crawford. W.D.

Exhaustive enquiries concerning the whereabouts of
A. Gind Pell, reported to be residing at Flat No. 1, Lane 651 Weihaiwei Road, have proved unavailing.

the name "Gind Pell" is not known in Shanghai and the above address is unoccupied.

Realising the difficulty in giving a correct
romanization of an occidental name written in Japanese characters, a search for surnames with similar phonetics was conducted and it is suggested that "Gind Pell" may possibly refer to "Gindper.."

Mr. Alfred Leopold Gindper, a Russian, is reported to have relatives living in Dairen and also to be the owner of property in that town.

He was employed at one time as a clerk in the R.W.D. in the Shanghai Municipal Council and subsequently established his own company for the sale of building materials at 24
The Bund, Shanghai.

This company was not successful and Mr. Gindper, it is stated, is now employed by the Phoenix Trading Co., 11 Harmer Road, and resides at House 6, Lane 141, Seymour Road. He is not believed to be the owner of property in Shanghai.

Mr. A. Gindper is a brother of Mr. E. Gindper who resides at No. 59 Route de Boissezon.
